DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Group 1 directed to claims 1 and 3-17, drawn to a standalone multifunction device adapting to a plurality of business application interfaces along with a script engine, classified in class 715, subclass 771.
- II. Group 2 directed to claims 18-20, drawn to a document management device through business application interfaces including a payroll application, an expense application and a human resource application, classified in class 715, subclass 775.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions 1 and 2 are directed to related methods for a multifunction device. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed do not overlap because group 1 is directed to a multifunction device for a plurality of business application interfaces, processing document data through inputs and outputs and configuration through a scriptable script engine. Group 2 is directed to a multifunction device with business application interfaces such as payroll application, an expense application and a human resource application, receiving user information and processing of document data. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was made to Dan Fishman on September 11, 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
